"Vanity is so anchored in the heart of man that a soldier, a soldier's servant, a cook, a porter brags, and wishes to have his admirers. Even philosophers wish for them. Those who write against it want to have the glory of having written well, and those who read it desire the glory of having read it. Pride takes such natural possession of us in the midst of our woes, errors, etc. We even lose our life with joy, provided people talk of it." - Pascal

The road goes ever on and on
Down from the door where it began.
Now far ahead the road has gone,
And I must follow if I can,
Pursuing it with eager feet,
Until it joins some larger way,
Where many paths and errands meet.
And wither then? I cannot say.

And from the ground there blossoms red,
Life that shall endless be."

For my family. You've been with me through good times and bad times. You have helped make me who I am. Jen, you have faced trials and tribulation. You are a beacon of overcoming and hope to me. Amy, you have blazed your own way through this world. You teach me about independence and faith. Archie, you have not always known how you fit in this world. You show me patience, perseverance, and trust. Mom, as far as I am concerned you are the saint of all saints. You are why I am where I am today. Lindsay,

We are very pleased with your accomplishment of 4 years at Covenant. You have impacted the lives of each one you touched for the better. It is so appropriate that you are pursuing your passion as you leave here. Never succomb to mediocrity, continue to calmly and graciously pursue excellence. God will reward your efforts with peace and purpose as you travel through this life. Remember God is good all the time.

With hearts full of pride,
Your family

"Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."

Eternal Father, strong to save, whose name hath bound the restless wave,
Who bidd'st the might ocean deep its own appointed limits keep;
Oh, hear us when we cry to Thee, for those in peril on the sea!

Lord, guard and guide the men who fly and those who on the ocean ply;
Be with our troops upon the land, and all who for their country stand:
Be with these guardians day and night and may their trust be in They might.

O Trinity of love and Power! Our brethern shield in danger's hour;
From rock and tempest, fire and foe, protect them wheresoe'er they go;
Thus evermore shall rise to Thee glad hymns of praise from land and sea!

Mac, we committed you to God before you were born, and we do so now, as you go forward into the United States Navy and beyond, the life He has planned for you from before the foundation of the world.

I John 4:7,
